

รายงานวิจัยฉบับสมบูรณ์ โครงการศึกษาวิจัยการจัดการงบประมาณขององค์การมหาชน

Public organizations were established on the basis of Public Organization Act B.E. 2542, they were on the increase ever since the first one has been founded. At the present time, there is 28 public organizations and a few ones will be set up respectively but none of them is analyzed any existing problems of budget management and organization administration. Purposes of this study are to study and compare principle and concept of public organization administration between foreign countries and Thailand in terms of administrative system, accounting and budget control system, to search for an approach of development human resource management, and to follow up assessment of public organization administration. Researchers complied entire laws and regulations concerning public organization to analyze system of public organization administration and to compare those with the laws of France, New Zealand and United Kingdom.

สำนักหอสมุด